1983	Acting Secretary of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country
February 1982 to October 1986	Legal Officer, Office of the Legal Counsel

(b) Main areas of responsibilities

In the course of almost twenty-two years of service in the Office of the Legal Counsel (OLC) of the Office of Legal Affairs (OLA) the candidate was involved, to various degrees, in all activities that constitute the responsibilities of that Office participating in providing advice on matters of law of a particular complex character aimed at giving support to political, peace-keeping, good offices and humanitarian missions undertaken by the United Nations. As Director of the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea the candidate was involved, to some extent, in practically all aspects of activities related to the implementation of the Untied Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, its Implementing Agreements and the work of the United Nations, its specialized agencies and other institutions in the field of ocean affairs and the law of the sea. The candidate has also been involved in drafting several comprehensive studies subsequently submitted to the principal United Nations organs for their consideration. These studies covered such issues as the law of the sea, the legal status of various territories, the question of Antarctica, the interpretation of statutory instruments, privileges and immunities, etc. One of these studies was a comprehensive review of legal and political issues related to Antarctica (more than 100 printed pages) and the other was a detailed analysis of the interrelationship between the legal regime established by the 1982 Law of the Sea Convention and the legal regime established by the 1959 Antarctic Treaty.

In discharge of the above responsibilities, the candidate has been involved in a wide range of sensitive and complex legal matters and negotiations, including:

- Participating in 1985 and 1986 in the preparation of the Vienna Conference on the law of treaties between States and international organizations or between international organizations as well as the work of the Conference itself as a member of the United Nations delegation

- Providing in 1987-1994 assistance on legal matters to the Preparatory Commission for the International Seabed Authority and the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea and subsequently to the International Seabed Authority in 1995 during a transitional period

- Providing in 1992 and 1993 legal assistance to the wok of the United Nations Iraq-Kuwait Boundary Demarcations Commission

- Assisting the United Nations Security Coordinator on legal matters concerning privileges and immunities, security and safety of staff of the organizations of the United Nations system as a focal point/liaison officer and participating in that capacity in inter-agency meetings on security matters

- Participating in negotiations with Iraq, undertaken pursuant to Security Council resolution 986 (1995), on the establishment of the Oil-for-Food arrangement, and subsequently participating in all stages of its implementation

- Assisting the Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia (ESCWA) at its 21st session in preparatory work for the conclusion in May 2001 of the Agreement on International Roads in the Arab Mashreq, which was the first agreement signed under the auspices of the Commission

- Participating in negotiations with Libya and other concerned countries on arrangements related to the implementation of Security Council resolution 1192 (1998) concerning the Lockerbie case.

- Assisting the Secretary-General at his meeting on 15 November 2002 with the Presidents of Nigeria and Cameroon in Geneva to follow up on the ruling of 10 October 2002 of the International Court of Justice on the boundary dispute between the two countries and subsequently providing assistance on legal matters to the Cameroon-Nigeria Mixed Commission established by that meeting for the implementation of the Judgment of the Court.

- Participating in consultations on and early stages of implementation of the Algiers Agreement between Eritrea and Ethiopia concerning boundary issues.

- Providing in April – October 2006 assistance on legal matters to the mediator/special advisor, appointed by the Secretary-General to assist Equatorial Guinea and Gabon in resolving a territorial dispute on maritime boundary between the two countries

- Assisting on legal issues related to institutional and restructuring matters, in particular: in the revision in 1991 of the statutory instruments of the World Food Programme (WFP), which resulted in the adoption of the arrangement that provided WFP with more operational freedom and flexibility; in the establishment of the Secretariat of the Climate Change Convention

- Participating as a key negotiator in negotiations of relationship agreements with other international organizations and entities, including: the International Seabed Authority (ISA), the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS), the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW), the Preparatory Commission for the Comprehensive Nuclear Test-Ban Treaty (CTBTO), the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU), the Islamic Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the International Criminal Police Organization (ICPO), the International Criminal Court (ICC) and the World Tourism Organization (ITU). The latter obtained through this agreement status of specialized agency of the United Nations.
